Sommelier Suggestions

Bubbles

Odyssey Brut 2006 Gray Monk Okanagan $56

A delicious blend of Riesling and Chardonnay make this bubble distinctive.

The nose starts with plenty of lemon, lime and mineral aromas. A firm persistent bubble and juicy acidity with notes of pineapple. Crisp and refreshing.

Perfect with Breakfast, Brunch or Antipasti

White

'Solosole' Vermentino 2007 Poggio al Tesoro Tuscany Italy $60

Vermentino is a grape native to Southern Italy. Rich and expressive, with red apple, floral and mineral tones on the nose. The palate is dry, with a sumptuous oily texture balanced by juicy acidity. The apple notes continue on the palate along with apricot and bitter almond.

Try this unique wine with our Ahi Tuna

'Perpetua' Chardonnay 2007 Mission Hill Okanagan B.C. $70

Subtle use of oak and focus on the elegant structure is what sets this Chardonnay apart from others in B.C. Ripe pineapple and a touch of buttered corn on the nose. Well structured with a nice touch of acidity and aromatic fruit.

Delicate oak in the background. Perfect with any of our Crab or Lobster dishes glass- $16 ½ litre- $52.50

Rosé

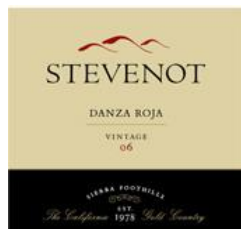

Rosé de Saignée 2007 Bergerie de l'Hortus Languedoc France $44

Saignée is a method often used to make rosé wine where part of the juice is bled off of freshly pressed grapes. This results in a delicate rosé wine as well as a more concentrated red made with the remaining juice still on the skins. This example is crisp and fresh with just enough body. Notes of strawberries and fresh cut grass on the nose and a juicy palate. This would pair well with so many dishes, but

I suggest trying it with the Belizian Prawn Open Ravioli

Red

Danza Roja 2005 Stevenot Sierra Foothills California $50

A very unique blend of primarily Grenache and Mourvedre, with a touch of Tempranillo, Syrah and Graciano. This is a spin on a traditional Spanish blend, made with ripe California fruit. Juicy and expressive, with cherry, five spice, tobacco and a dusty, savory character. Enjoy this wine with a Rack of Lamb

Compendium 2006 Mission Hill Okanagan B.C. $80

52% Merlot, with a healthy splash of Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Petite Verdot from the same pedigree as the cult classic, Oculus. Almost opaque in color, with plummy fruit and smoky aromas. Full bodied with bold yet silky tannin. Notes of blueberry, cocoa, and leather on the palate. This wine begs for meat, pair a bottle with our Beef Tenderloin

glass- $18 ½ litre- $60

PTG 2006 Joie Naramata B.C. $60

A delicate blend of Pinot Noir and Gamay Noir. This style of wine is traditional in Burgundy where it is known as passetoutgrains. Light in color and body, but with plenty of character. Candied strawberry tones contrast savory, dusty aromas. Cherry, licorice and smoky notes on the palate, with gentle tannin. The perfect red to pair with fish. Delicious with our Wild Pacific Salmon

Best of Canada

The British Columbian wine industry has made huge strides since the first major plantings of vinifera grapes in 1968. However, on an international scale, we are a very young wine region. During this Olympic celebration, I have chosen to showcase a few of what I consider to be the best wines in BC. Included in this list are a few precious bottles that have been aging in our cellar, waiting for this opportunity to show their amazing potential. I hope you enjoy them as much as I have!

Cheers,
Rachelle
